This pin gave me great resources on hippotherapy. I have been researching and have found 2 certification exams: ANCB Certification Exam and Hippotherapy Clinical Specialist Exam. These certifications are credentials that physical, occupational, or speech-language pathologists can add as specialties. hippotherapycertification.org

Yellowdig has an adjustable point system that will grade posts based on criteria and values set.

Grade Passback Enabled must be checked in order for grades to be automatically passed back into Moodle Gradebook for course

WARNING: When creating pins, Yellowdig intends that instructor pins be added each week, rather than all at once.

If you would like pin content to be created all at once, there are a couple of options:

1. Create pin content in a word document and then copy and paste pin content into Yellowdig each week. Content will be saved in Word and not have to then be recreated.
2. Create multiple pins in Yellowdig, but clearly Title "Week 1 Discussion, Week 2 Discussion...etc."
  - a. Make topics to match for easier use in locating pins (Users may click on topics to locate related pins)
  - b. Keep in Mind - Pins will show in feed in order added, so if Pins are added chronologically: week 1, week 2, week 3, they will show in feed: week 3, week 2, week 1 (most recent entry on top of feed)

The screenshot shows the Yellowdig website interface for a board named "Jeanna's Sandbox Yellowdig Demo2". The interface includes a top navigation bar, a main content area with a welcome message and a "Welcome to Yellowdig" section, and a right sidebar with various menu items. Numbered callouts (1-6) point to specific features, and text boxes provide additional context.

Callouts and Text Boxes:

- 1: Instructor's Boards in Dropdown
- 2: Profile Preferences
- 3: Menu:
  - Feed: Board Pins and Comments
  - Community: Instructor and Board Followers
  - Files: Any files uploaded
  - Dashboard: Course Report
  - Settings: Members, Points, Topics, Notifications
  - Admin: Activity and Points Report
- 4: Search, Sort by and Filters
- 5: Points Summary
- 6: Trending Topics: Selecting a topic will take user to that pin and related comments

Text Boxes:

- Top Left: "This Welcome Window opens with new boards. Keep this as your first pin for an explanation and test for student use familiarity"
- Bottom Left: "Make your first comment demonstrating your expectations of how responses should look"
- Top Right: "When ready, click +Pin to make your first entry. This could be: 'Week 1: Discussion Question'"

You Set the Expectations

Make it very clear in your original pin or course description how Yellowdig forum posts are to look: professional or casual, the type of language to be used: text speak or APA, and requirements expected: links, references, word count, images...

Board owner may delete any pins or comments that do not fit criteria.

Board owner comments may also redirect criteria not suited for requirements

Instructor feedback in pins and comments keep discussion engaged and on target

Grading Options

Grades will automatically be passed back to Moodle based on the Point settings in Yellowdig. Points shown in next screen shot

The preconfigured points do not grade content. A separate grade item may be created if choosing to take a grade from the content pinned in Yellowdig.

Yellowdig forum discussions may be included as participation, content development, ongoing assessment of knowledge, or as a redirection tool.

Yellowdig is designed to promote engaging interaction with more options for submitting content than in a typical forum.

In Settings, see Board Settings

Points
Points are set at a default value. These can be changed by clicking on values underlined.

Weekly Point Maximums may be enabled, if desired.
